

Faculty of Medical Sciences University of Sri Jayewardenepura

Vacancy for Post of Research Assistants for the research project

CRITIC

A project with the goal to reduce the incidence of Tuberculosis in the Galle district in collaboration with the Ministry of Health

Applications are invited from qualified persons on a contract basis for the above project.

Minimum Qualifications

1. Should possess a degree from a recognized University. Sociology or Psychology degrees will be an added advantage
2. Must live either permanently or temporarily in the Galle District.
3. Should possess a good command of English and Sinhala/Tamil.
4. Must be proficient in using computer application software.
5. Should demonstrate strong communication skills.
6. Must have a good character.
7. Experience in community-related data collection will be an added advantage.

Remuneration: All-inclusive monthly allowance of Rs.50000 and a phone with a package for coordination

Period of Contract: One year and six months for 6 days a week including weekends

How to Apply: Prescribed applications are called through social media and posters displayed on the University noticeboards. The application together with copies of relevant educational and professional certificates and a CV with 2 nonrelated referees should be forwarded to critic.sl2024@gmail.com on or before 30.10.2024.

General conditions

- The Principal Investigator reserves the right to shortlist candidates for interviews.
- This appointment is on a contract basis.
- An initial training course will be provided for the selected candidates. Satisfactory completion of the training is a requirement to commence the job.
- The selected candidates will be evaluated 3 monthly. Considering extending the service of the selected candidate depends on satisfactory performance.

Prof. Shamini Prathapan
Principal Co Investigator
University of Sri Jayewardenepura
15.10.2024