

Faculty of Medical Sciences University of Sri Jayewardenepura

Vacancy for Post of a radiographer for the research project

CRITIC

A project with the goal to reduce the incidence of Tuberculosis in the Galle district in collaboration with the Ministry of Health

Applications are invited from qualified radiographers on a contract basis for the above project.

Job Location: Galle District

Job Summary: To travel within the Galle district and radiograph patients with Tuberculosis or their contacts or high risk groups and coordinate with the programme manager and the Principal Investigators to achieve the outcomes of the project.

Education Qualifications: A degree in Medical Imaging or an equivalent qualification.

Experience / Knowledge

- A proven track record of working as an efficient radiographer.
- Experience in working in a similar environment successfully towards deadlines under pressure.
- Experience of successful teamwork.

Skills

- Ability to take clear imaging.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills in English & Sinhala. Tamil is an added advantage.
- Excellent organizational and prioritizing skills.
- Ability to work with a portable X-ray machine.

Working Conditions 6 days per week, including weekends.

Remuneration: All-inclusive monthly allowance of Rs.45,000 and a phone with a package for coordination Fixed-term contract for eighteen months

How to Apply: Prescribed applications are called through social media. The application together with copies of relevant educational and professional certificates and a CV with 2 non related referees should be forwarded to critic.sl2024@gmail.com on or before 30.10.2024

General conditions

- The Principal Investigator reserves the right to shortlist candidates for interviews.
- This appointment is on a contract basis.
- An initial training course will be provided for the selected candidates. Satisfactory completion of the training is a requirement to commence the job.
- The selected candidates will be evaluated 6 monthly. Considering extending the service of the selected candidate depends on satisfactory performance

Prof. Shamini Prathapan
Principal Co-Investigator
University of Sri Jayewardenepura
15.10.2024